After six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, leading them up a high mountain—just the four of them. There he was transfigured before them—his clothes became radiant, so brilliantly white that no one on earth could have bleached them. Elijah and Moses appeared to them and they were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Teacher, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah.” For he did not know what to say since they were terrified. A cloud overshadowed them and a voice came out of the cloud, “This is my beloved Son; listen to him.” Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them but Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, he insisted they tell no one what they had seen until the Son of Man was risen from the dead.
